

Nine (9) Time
PKC International
 "Big Dog"
 Grand Champion

Reginald Venson's standard of excellence knows no boundaries. Reginald has battled for the PKC International "Big Dog" Grand Champion Title and conquered an unparalleled nine(9) times over seven(7) finals competitions (In 2008 and 2009 he blitzed the finals competition for both the forms and weapons). In addition to nine(9) Big Dog Titles, he also sealed two PKC International Championship Triple Crown wins in 2008 and 2013, winning his division in forms, fighting and weapons. He is recognized and respected by all three sister organizations and has secured three USKA World Grand Championship Titles. If he were a stock on Wall Street, he would be a Blue Chip Stock.

Reginald Venson

"Going the Distance"

Reginald Venson lives and works in the Chicago, Illinois area. Born 1972 in the year of the Rat, he is smart, personable and adaptable. The martial arts community know him as a gentleman and a leader. He trains and teaches in the family owned "Just For Kicks" martial arts dojo along side his father John and brother Dwight Venson. The Just For Kicks students know him as the example to follow for martial arts greatness.

"Do more than is required. What is the distance between those who achieve their goals consistently and those who merely follow? The extra mile."
 Gary Ryan Blair

Reggie has been competing in martial arts tournaments since the early 80's. He has competed and championed throughout the US and abroad. Recognized as PKC Best Male Competitor, Spirited Fighter and Sportsman, he has racked up Ten (10) PKC National 1st Place Season Championship Titles between 1998-2013.

Currently a 6th degree black belt in the Shuri Ryu style, he is a respected 19 year Lifetime PKC member and likely PKC Elite candidate. He has also earned inductions into the USKK Bushido Society and USKA Hall of Fame.

Ten (10) Time
PKC National Season Champion

